of Our School

THIS YEAR BOOK

is lovingly dedicated

by Her Friends, the Class of 1930

If keen intelligence, kindly words, the glance of sympathy, nimble wit, the facile phrase, and the understanding heart constitute riches, ...

then she possesses a golden treasury whose magic contents, like the fountain of youth,
is restored from day to day.

And we who travel the road with her are enriched too from her store, for we claim our portion when we call her "Friend."

"She is our friend! The words
Bring summer and the birds;
And all our winter time
Thaws into running rhyme
And ripples into song,
Warm, tender, brave, and strong.
And as it sings today
So may it sing alway!
Let each mute measure end
With, 'Still she is our friend.'"

From her schoolroom door we fare forth, a great and shining band, encouraged by her gentle guidance, inspired by her high ideals. May all happiness be hers!

God speed thee, Dear Friend.

Maude Brown

Just one question: How much is your word worth?

Do you give it lightly? Do you break it easily? Do you measure your promises before they are given? Do you dare to tell the truth?

How much does your word mean to your friends? Can they tie to it and feel secure? Do they know that you are true blue?

How much does it mean to the people you know? Do they shrug their shoulders when you speak? Or do they listen and believe?

How much will your word mean in business? Will your employer have to check up on you? Will he believe you and in you, absolutely? Your pay envelope will tell.

How much will it mean at the bank? The man who is known to keep his word has large credit.

If your word is good, you have traveled far toward success in business; toward sound financial credit; toward respect in your community; toward friendships that grip; toward a character that will stand the test of God.

THE MEMBERS OF THE CLASS OF 1930 NEED LITTLE ADVICE. ONE THING ONLY WOULD I ASK OF THEM: THAT THEY CONTINUE TO MAKE THEIR OWN OPPORTUNITIES AND NEVER DEMAND THAT MOST MODERN OF PREROGATIVES—"A BREAK".

Foreword

TIME PASSES SWIFTLY. WE MUST LEAVE OUR OLD HAUNTS NOW AND TURN TO OTHER FIELDS. YET MEMORIES SWEET AND WISTFUL ARE TO REMAIN WITH US ALWAYS. WHEN WE THINK OF THE STRUGGLE OF OUR PILGRIM FOREFATHERS, THREE HUNDRED YEARS AGO, FOR AN EDUCATION, WE ARE THANKFUL FOR HAVING BEEN ENABLED TO ATTEND ONE OF THE BEST SCHOOLS IN THE LAND. FORTIFIED BY THE WISDOM AND CHARACTER EVOLVED AT EVERETT HIGH SCHOOL, WE ARE HOPEFUL OF ATTAINING OUR ENDEAVORS. WE SHALL TRY TO BRING RESPECT, HONOR, AND GLORY TO OUR ALMA MATER.

CLASS ODE

Three hundred years ago, a dauntless band
Of Pilgrims came to this, their promised land.
From out their hearts they formed a high ideal
And bravely set to work to make it real.
They flung the torch down when their work was through.
What was not done, their sons remained to do.
So, through the long years that have passed since then,
That flame has burned to light the hearts of men.
Come, then, let us take up that fiery brand
By the strong winds of dauntless courage fanned.
Shall we relinquish their firm, lasting hold?
Shall we not form ideals like purest gold?
There may be one amongst us who will climb
To the most glorious heights of fame sublime;
But still the unknown rest of us will stay
To live and love and labor in God's strange way.
Go, grasp the torch with your young eager hands,
And bring to life the things for which it stands!
Let not the light grow dim with sighs and tears,
But keep it flaming bright throughout the years.

YE SENIORS

Edith Aaron

11 Ashton Street

Spanish Club, '27, '28, '29.

"Sis" is capable and energetic. We are not at all surprised to learn that she wants to pilot an aeroplane.

Richard Ahlquist

96 Vernal Street

Although he desires to attain success in some field of aviation he will still be "Sentimental Dick".

Wallace E. Allen, Jr.

157 Springvale Avenue

Tech Club, '29, '30.

"Wally" has a goal in mind. Stick to it, boy!

Edith Valerie Alpert

126 Florence Street

Talented, peppy, and cute is "Dee". The Honor Roll is one of her best friends. She wants to be a Paris buyer for a large concern.

Frank Amerena

5 Laurel Street

Frank has no ambition but likes to hunt. Some day he may find something that is invaluable. We wonder what?

Susie Dorothy Ames

55 Bennett Street

Quiet, energetic, studious "Sue", whose ambition is to acquire an education. We hope oratory is one of her subjects.

Mildred Armstrong

33 Linden Street

"Millie's" pet ambition is to be an expert juggler of figures, in other words, a good bookkeeper. We have great hopes for her future.

Theresa Emily Auger

34 Cleveland Avenue

Glee Club, '30.

"Ticky" has found out that school isn't such a bad place after all, and so her ambition is to keep on going. May you never tire, "Ticky".

Ruth Estelle Baglow

18 Dunster Road

Girls' English Club, '30; Broadcast Staff, '30; Senior Play Committee, '30.

"Rufus" is studious and industrious. She wants to be a head nurse. But it is the heart that usually starts head trouble. You'd better look into that too.

Madge Bailey

25 Hawthorne Street

Madge is aiming to be a private secretary. That winning smile of hers ought to help a lot.

Roy Barr

61 Shute Street

Tech Club, '28, '29; Stage Manager Senior Class Play, '30.

Roy wishes to become an engineer of locomotives, he has started off good, he can take a Ford apart very easily.

Mary Barritt

1 Perry Place

Girls' English Club, '30.

To be someone's private secretary. Be good and you'll be lonesome.

Roy Stanley Barton

45 Raymond Street

Boys' Glee Club, '30.

"Duke" is a nice fella. He hopes someday to be a broker and make lots and lots of money. Give some of us a chance, "Duke".

Doris Ellen Batty

49 Reed Avenue

"Dash" is our only artist of 124, but still she doesn't intend to follow this profession. She is waiting for a good-looking parachute jumper to land at her feet.

Harold Francis Beane

19 Beacham Street

Pres. Radio Club, '30.

"Beany" is a nut on radio, but all nuts don't come from Brazil.

ADELLE BENTON

14 Woodland Street

English Club, '30.

If as good a nurse you will become as you have been a student, then we know that success awaits you.

MILTON BERGER

161 Vine Street

Lyceum, '29, '30; Tech Club, '29, '30.

"Mick" wants to be a butter and egg man. He has a good start; he sells chickens.

HARRY BERNARD BERNSTEIN

146 Nichols Street

Chemistry Club, '30; Writers' Club, '30; Orchestra, '30.

"Berny's" ambition is to follow the Medical Profession. We think as a violinist he'd do a much better job.

JOHN CHARLES BEST

109 Ferry Street

Sigma Alpha, '27, '28; Treasurer, '29, '30.

He wants to be an aviator. What a great aviator you'd make. You even fly now.

DINO GEORGE BIGGI

79 Floyd Street

Current Events Club, '30.

While being a commercial artist remember, on with the dance.

Mildred Billings

219 Main Street

Spanish Club, '29, '30.

"Millie's" ambition is to get somewhere. We have no doubt but what she will.

Irene Frances Blake

18 Henderson Street

"Blakie's" ambition is to have a "talking picture" of somebody. Keep up your hopes, "Blakie". Television will soon be here—it may serve.

Samuel Bonaccorso

45 Westover Street

"Sam" is going to be a lawyer. "All lawyers need a good line."

Chester Edward Bond

7 Orchard Street

Boys' Glee Club, '29, '30; Junior Prom Committee, '29; Senior Dance Committee, '30; Senior Class Play, '30; Year Book Staff, '30; Lyceum, '28; Chemistry Club, '29; Hi-Y, '30.

Ask "Chet" about an out-of-town girl and he'll say there's nothing like her. However, he may change his mind.

Arthur Borjeson

33 Francis Street

Tech Club, '28, '29; "E" Club, '30; Football, '29.

"Art" would like to become a mathematician. He intends to teach grammar school.

Irene F. Bourque

5 Avon Street

"Frenchie" believes that "Satan finds mischief for idle hands to do." She aims to be a stenographer, bookkeeper, and hairdresser in between times.

Grace E. Brackett

90 Main Street

Science Club, '26.

Grace's ambition is to be a stenographer, modest, kind, and silent.

William Bradford

53 Arlington Street

Tech Club, '29, '30.

"Bill's" knowledge of reading ought to enable him to become a historian—reading "Wild West" magazines.

Arthur Everett Brandt

131 Bucknam Street

Band, '27, '28, '29, '30; Orchestra, '27, '28, '29.

"Ed" wants to be an aviator, but we know him as a musician of note. Don't blow too much, though.

Bernice Alice Brown

145 Irving Street

"Bunny" will tickle the keys in some office. Don't get arrested for speeding. There is a limit, you know.

Marjorie Elizabeth Brown

44 Dean Street

Glee Club, '28, '29; Manager, '30; Junior Prom Committee, '29; Senior Dance Committee, '30; Year Book Staff, '30.

"Brownie" likes pretty rivers. Often you'll hear her say, "softly came the rustle of the Charles".

Ruth Bryant

53 Lexington Street

Writers' Club, '30.

"Ruthie's" ambition is to be a private secretary. You certainly have had enough experience in this line, only don't be too private a secretary!

Edward William Burnett

82 Waverly Street

"Eddie" hopes to be a business executive someday. It is a long and tedious climb, but it's in him. Our hopes are with you, Eddie.

Edna Lois Burnett

28 Pierce Avenue

Current Events Club, '30; Senior Class Play, '30; Broadcast Staff, '30.

Well, "Ed", it looks as if you'd graduate, but what about the future? Whatever you do, don't be late and keep him waiting at the altar.

Muriel Louise Burrows

41 Chelsea Street

Home Economics Club, '28; Home Nursing Club, '29; Interior Decorating Club, '30.

Muriel's ambition is to become an interior decorator. We aren't all dreamers, are we?

Frank Elwood Butt

40 Harley Avenue

Tech Club, '29, '30.

You know, Frank, something else squeaks besides wheels that are tight.

William Joseph Cadagan

51 Lynn Street

Lyceum, '30.

"Bill's" ambition is to go to Northeastern. He's always building castles in the air.

Lillian M. Cahill

37 Hosmer Street

"Lil's" ambition is to be a bookkeeper. We hope your figures don't lie. Success in all your transactions, "Lil".

Richard Caliri

244 Main Street

"Dick's" future is undecided, but we have an idea that when the decision does come, it will be a mighty good one. Best wishes, "Dick".

Carmel Frances Canderozzi

43 Gledhill Avenue

"E" Club Play, '29; Girls' Basketball Team, '28.

"Carmels" is just as sweet as her name. She is a talented artist. Her present ambition is to defeat Helen Wills.

Gaetone Carbone

59 Rich Street

Football, '30.

Serious-minded "Guy" is to enter Bentley's and study accounting. There are no girls there, so he will pass with flying colors.

Joseph Everett Caroselli

115 Bucknan Street

Lyceum, '27, '28, '29, '30; Debating Team, '28; Lyceum Play, '27, '28, '30.

"Joe" aims to be an actor, he plays crazy parts in all the shows, as a nut you'll go big.

Gilbert Carney

114 Harvard Street

"Bert" has that deceiving twinkle in his eyes—look out, ladies.

Walter Casey

565 Broadway

Lyceum, '30; Hi-Y, '29, '30; Senior Class Play, '30; Lyceum Play, '28.

As a lawyer we hear him saying, "Oh, Death, where is thy sting?"

William James Cashman

24 Cedar Street

Tech Club, '30.

"Cash" wants to be happy; make yourself useful and you'll be all right.

Frank Salvatore Catanzano

223 Elm Street

"Frankie" hopes to become a doctor. We wonder what kind?

Frances A. Clapp

562 Broadway

Girls' Glee Club, '29, '30; Broadcast Board, '28, '29, '30; Broadcast Staff, '28, '29; Year Book Staff, '28, '29, '30; Senior Class Play, '30; School Council, '29; Good Cheer, '29, '30; Junior Prom Committee, '29.

Although she wants to weigh 100 pounds, we all know "Fannie" can reach high G.

Gordon Clerke

101 Jefferson Avenue

Art Club President, '28, '29; Senior Dance Committee, '30; Writers' Club, '30; Junior Editor Broadcast, '29.

"Dryden" wants to be either a doctor or a writer. If a writer, never judge a book by its cover.

Lillian Cohen

126 Union Street

"Lil" makes less noise and does more. She hopes to be a stenographer. Best wishes, "Lil".

Mildred E. Cohen

213 Elm Street

Art Club, '29; Year Book Staff, '30.

"Milly" is quiet—until you get to know her. She is interested in the ancient art of journalism. May your shadow never grow less.

Virginia F. Colby

31 Bucknam Street

Art Club, '29, '30; Senior Class Play Committee, '30; English Club, '30.

We all know her eyes make pictures when they're shut. We wish you success at Vesper George Art School, "Ginnie".

Walter C. Conrad

38 Pearl Street

Tech Club, '30; Senior Dance Committee, '30; Chemistry Club, '30; Basketball, '29, '30.

To be a coach is a fine ambition. You know Caesar was killed for being ambitious.

Florence E. Cook

37 Pearl Street

Broadcast Show, '30; Senior Class Play, '30; Glee Club Show, '30.

The composer must have been thinking of "Cookie" when he wrote "Sweeter than Sweet". You'd expect "Cookie" to want to supply Everett with heated sidewalks for the benefit of woman-haters.

Angelo D. Covino

2 Beacham Street

Band, '28, '29, '30; Orchestra, '28, '29, '30.

"Angie's" good work in the band and orchestra deserves credit. We were not at all surprised to find that he is going to be a jazz band leader. Good luck, "Angie".

Lois Crowell

89 Chestnut Street

Chemistry Club, '29, '30; Basketball, '29, '30.

She's a fine basketball player and "Ripe with Wisdom is she".

Dorothea Elizabeth Currie

20 Walnut Street

Combine auburn locks and delightful personality equals our "Dotty". This sweet and charming young lady will live forever in our hearts.

Bettina Cutliff Cushing

77 Norwood Street

Girls' Basketball, '30.

"Betty" is one of those rough and ready girls who can handle all situations deftly. We'll wager your ambition is going to be a nice one. Good luck!

Olive Leila Davison

27 Vernal Street

Girls' English Club, '30.

"Ollie" hopes to be a nurse. Don't you envy the lucky patients who will be under her care?

Albina Margaret Del Gratta

33 Woodville Street

"Bee" is always jolly and gay. Her motto, "Live, Love, and Laugh" will carry her through the difficulties of a private secretary.

John Joseph Del Isola

36 Prescott Street

Football, '28; Captain, '29; Baseball, '29; Captain, '30; Basketball, '29; Captain, '30; Christmas Committee, '27, '28, '29; Chairman, '30; Lyceum, '27; Tech Club, '28; "E" Club, '29; President, '30; Junior Class Secretary, '29; Senior Class President, '30; Junior Prom Committee, '29; Senior Dance Committee, '30; Senior Play Committee, '30.

"Del" has the reputation of being a hard fighter in a football game. We know he'll make good as a coach.

Edith Margaret Delory

115 Waverly Street

Girls' Glee Club, '29, '30; Year Book Staff, '30; Junior Prom Committee, '29; Senior Dance Committee, '30.

"Edie" is coming back to school next year to learn something, but after that, watch her step.

Ida Elizabeth DeVivo

Home Economics Club, '30.

Ida intends to go to B. U. in order to be a private secretary. We know you will succeed in your career.

Ellen Rita Digby

24 Carlson Street

Basketball, '30.

"Dig" as yet seems to have no ambition, but we do think you'd make the nicest gym teacher. Be merciful with the showers!

Francis Anthony Di Venuti

17 Villa Avenue

Good Cheer Committee, '27; Lyceum, '27, '28; President, '29; Treasurer Class of '28 Junior Year; President Junior Class, '29; Girls' Glee Club Show, '28, '29, '30; Lyceum Show, '27, '28, '29, '30; Editor Broadcast, '29; Editor Emeritus, '30; Chairman Junior Prom, '29; Chairman Senior Dance, '30; Senior Class Play, '30; "E" Club Show, '30; Honorary Member "E" Club, '30; President Writers' Club, '30; Chairman Executive School Council, '30; Secretary Christmas Committee, '29; Sigma Kappa Kappa President, '30; Sport Editor Yearbook, '29; Associate Editor, '30.

"Dev" always liked to make people happy. His secret ambition is to make someone happy always! To the class of '30 he expresses himself like this: "My wit is like a new penny, gathered from anywhere, take it and may it always amuse you."

Joseph Patrick Doherty

55 Reed Avenue

"E" Club, '30; Football, '29.

"Joe" is quiet, tall and lean; a regular "We".

Mae Donovan
15 Winthrop Road

Senior Dance Committee, '30.

"Dunnie" wants to be a private secretary, but that's too ordinary. Why not try to get a position with the "Kelley" Tires?

Mary Elizabeth Dooley
5 Orient Avenue

Mary is as mischievous as a little boy. The twinkle in her eye belies the seriousness of her words. Never grow up, Mary! We like you as you are.

Virginia Gertrude D'Ortona
19 Liberty Street

"Vi" always made friends easily. This little knack will be a great help when you get out into the world.

Alice Doyle
105 Summer Street

"Al" has a big, big, ambition—to grow tall. She can't see over transoms now. Yards of success, "Al".

Minnie Dressman
86 Francis Street

We had a hard time finding Min, but here she is as big as ever. To grow—oh! how to grow is Min's question. Cheer up, they like 'em small.

Myrtle Mae Dudley

28 Edith Avenue

English Club, '30; Spanish Club, '28.

"Billie" knows not what her ambition is, but she sure believes that "Variety is the spice of life".

Blanche Edna Dunbar

111A Bucknam Street

Girls' Glee Club, '29; Assistant Manager, '30; Treasurer of Class of '29; Secretary of Class of '30; Year Book Staff, '30; Associate Editor of Broadcast, '30; Decoration Manager Junior Prom, '29; Decoration Manager Senior Dance, '30; Senior Class Play, '30; "E" Club Show, '29.

"Bunny's" middle name should be Efficiency. Her ambition is to accomplish a huge feat after eight years; until then we are waiting and hoping.

Raymond Stewart Duncan

29 Wall Street

Football, '30.

"Ray" wants to be a draftsman, alas! What a job. He may heed the impossibility of it and reverse his future.

Helen Alice Dunlea

22 Union Avenue

Helen is of the quiet, industrious type. She wants to be a secretary to a big business man. Big business or big man?

William Boynton Edmands

40 Jackson Avenue

"Bill" is one of the most sociable and good-natured boys in school. He's the sort of boy large concerns consider a find. Success to you, Bill.

Donald Evans

24 Bailey Street

Tech Club, '30.

"Don" is a quiet chap, but manages to keep very busy.

Joseph John Fahey

11 Hillside Avenue

Tech Club, '29, '30.

"Joe" wants to become a salesman. He'll have to eliminate the title "Sheik".

Frank Joseph Foley

28 Clifton Avenue

Football, '30.

We predict that Frank will become a great actor and suggest that he give up his desire to be a doctor.

Vega Ruth Forsell

59 Cedar Street

We haven't room enough to ennumerate all the things "Kinks" can do. She is the versatile girl of the class. She hopes to be able to sing as well as Helen Morgan.

Arthur Joseph Fournier

5 Hancock Terrace

"E" Club, '30; Boys' Glee Club, '29; Good Cheer Committee, '30; Senior Dance Committee, '30; Football, '30; Girls' Glee Club Play, '30.

Arthur wants to be a doctor, Maebe.

Charlotte Fowler

85 Beacon Street

Uke Club, '26, '27; Current Events Club, '30.

You know "Happy", "Music soothes the savage beast but Tempus still Fugits".

Doris Fowler

25 Autumn Street

You know noise is not necessary for success, "Dor".

Hazel Anne Frazer

4 Hancock Park

"Kitty" is bound to get the most out of life—she's going to live, laugh, and be happy. May the shadows never darken your path, "Kitty".

Alfred Henry Frederick

82 Chestnut Street

Algebra Club, '27; Tech Club, '28, '30; Art Club, '29.

"Nef", as a chief operator at the Metropolitan Theatre, we think you'd be better as a substitute for Jeff.

John A. Fuglestad, Jr.

76 Vernal Street

Boys' Glee Club, '29, '30; Tech Club, '29, '30.

"Little John's" ambition is to be a machinist. It's a machinist that makes the wheels go 'round, "Little John".

SALLY RUTSTEIN

16 Nichols Street

Sally was always well liked by her classmates. She wants to be a private secretary to a lawyer—a successful one. Our best wishes, "Sal".

VERA MAE RYAN

24 Plumer Street

Home Economics Club, '29; Lamp Shade Club, '30.

"We-We's" ambition is to be an interior decorator, but keep your sunny side up.

ROSE ST. JOHN

51 Wolcott Street

Home Nursing Club, '27, '28, '29, '30.

Here is another one of those future "secs". Success will manage to search you out, Rose.

WALTER JOHN SAMPSON

179 Shute Street

"E" Club, '30; Tech Club, '30; Football, '30.

At M. I. T., "Slim", we know you'll go over big, so watch your step.

ROBERT SARJEANT

133 Nichols Street

"Bob" wants to build bridges. Go right ahead, we won't stop you.

HELEN MARJORIE SCHEPMOES

43 Chelsea Street

"Margie" is sweetness personified. Really, "Margie", wouldn't you feel more at home in a little white cottage than in a dusty office taking dictation?

ANNE ROSE DOROTHY SCHWARTZ

206 Main Street

Lamp Shade Club, '27; Home Economics Club, '28; Nursing Club, '29; Home Decoration Club, '30.

"Swartzie's" ambition is to work in a millinery shop making hats, or to have a shop of her own. "Ain't Misbehavin'."

MARIO MICHAEL SCIBINICO

39 Pierce Avenue

Tech Club, '30.

"Mike" wants to be a cabinet maker. Try your luck as a waiter, you'd do a lot better.

SHIRLEY E. SHATTUCK

162 Elm Street

Broadcast Staff, '29; Secretary Spanish Club, '30; Junior Prom Committee, '29; Senior Dance Committee, '30.

"Shirl" wants to be a dressmaker. We're sure you'll always be in style.

IRENE MARY SHEA

33 Hosmer Street

Irene is always willing to lend a helping hand. She hasn't the least bit of an inkling what she'd like to be. We like you to be just as you are.

DOROTHY MAY SHEEHAN

32 Raymond Street

Girls' Glee Club, '30; Junior Prom Committee, '29.

With a voice like "Dot's", who wouldn't be popular? Many good things are in store for her, so we needn't worry about her future. Best wishes.

Douglas Sheppard

11 Gledhill Avenue

Sigma Alpha, '29, '30; Tech Club, '30; Cheer Leader, '29.

"Doug" is the little boy who used to lead the shouting. Funny how they pick on little people for that purpose.

Anne Mary Sherry

51 Albion Street

Spanish Club, '28.

Well, well, Anne, is he rushing you so fast that you want eight nights in a week? What are you going to do every day? Oh, keep house? Fine!

Catherine Shine

6 Green Street

"Kay" wants to grow in more ways than one. With her experience as a stenographer, we hope she reaches the one way to success and happiness.

Gordon Wheeler Small

43 Vernal Street

Gordon has an awful handicap in his last name. Why not change it?

Anna Mary Smith

132 Irving Street

Here is where the marriage bureau loses its business. Anna is going to start a home for bachelors. We reckon one of the bachelors won't be that way long.

Constance Emme Smith

18 Harley Avenue

"Connie" wants to be a school teacher. If she grew a little taller she'd be all set to fill such a position.

Reginald Smith

29 Hancock Street

Hi-Y, '29, '30; "E" Club, '30; Basketball, '29, '30; Tennis, '28.

"Smitty" wants to go to Springfield College but we want to tell you that men are children of a larger class.

Mary Elizaebth Smyth

8 Fairlawn Street

"May" has found out that ledgers and journals are as interesting as works of fiction. As a bookkeeper, may your stories end happily.

John Snook, Jr.

49 Hosmer Street

Boys' Glee Club, '28; Senior Class Play, '30; Hi-Y, '28, '29; Broadcast Show, '29; "E" Club; Track Team, '30.

Red hair and "It" are synonymous for Johnny. Seriously he wants to be a member of a brokerage firm. Give the other fellows an even "break", Johnny.

Joseph Sorrenti

21 Fremont Avenue

"E" Club, '30; Track Captain, '30; Football, '29.

"Joe" has acquired fame as a track man. If he intends to follow this up we know he'll make good.

Atheline Springer

66 Pearl Street

Atheline's ambition is to be a dressmaker. She'll always be looked for by one who wants an industrious wife.

Dorothy I. Stickney

31 Mansfield Street

Year Book Staff, '30.

Initiative is Dot's middle name. For aid, assistance or help, call on her. She joins the ranks of private secretaries. This looks suspicious. Why all Private Secretaries?

Lois Stockard

20 Marie Avenue

Girls' English Club, '30; Art Club, '29; Basketball, '29.

Her ambition is to graduate from Normal Art School and be a good teacher. Her nickname ought to be "Sweet Tooth".

Philip Irving Stone

27 Sammet Street

"Phil" wants to study engineering at Northeastern to follow aviation. He is never in the air, we wonder why he's fallen for aviation?

Ruth Evelyn Stone

68 Linden Street

English Club, '30.

Ruth should make good at Burdett's, she is just the type.

JAMES STROB

30 Wyllis Street

James has a bright future ahead of him. Watch him!

DONALD DANIEL SULLIVAN

32 Bell Rock Street

"Sully" is a quiet sort of a chap; you ought to get yourself a toy.

LAWRENCE WILLIAM SULLIVAN

46 Chestnut Street

Tech Club, '28, '29.

"Sully" is going to be a cop, his feet speak for themselves.

MILDRED MARIE SULLIVAN

6 Cedar Terrace

"Micky", our wild Irish rose, hopes to be a buyer in Paris. So, friends, when you visit gay "Paree", don't forget to pay your respects to her.

ARVID LE ROY SUND

11 Porter Street

As a successful business man he's willing to talk to the girls all day.

ETHEL DOROTHY SWANBERG

109 Vernal Street

If you see a dazed expression on "Et's" face, it is because she is still wondering what her ambition is going to be. We wish you a speedy decision.

ROGER SWANSON

14 Arthur Avenue

Dramatic Club, '27; Lyceum, '29; Tech Club, '30.

As a tennis player you would make a better polo star.

DONALD SWINDELL

70 Cleveland Avenue

Tech Club, '30.

"Deacon" is small, but can make plenty of noise.

FREDERICK FOSTER TAYLOR

42 Spring Street

Tech Club, '29; "E" Club, '30; Football, '29; Track, '30; Baseball, '30.

Some day "Fleet" is going to wake up and find himself sleeping.

JOHN AUGUST THIMS

97 Belmont Street

Band, '27, '28, '29.

John intends to become an engineer. Perhaps he ought to study music instead.

Horace Tibbetts

273 Chelsea Street

Tech Club, '27, '28, '29.

"Slim" is a chemistry enthusiast. His figure allows him to avoid large projects.

Oscar Tilton

58 Union Street

Lyceum, '29; Current Events Club, '30.

All we have to say for Oscar is that he is as clever as he looks.

Theresa Minerva Toce

81 Jefferson Avenue

Lampshade Club, '27; Home Economics Club, '28; Home Nursing Club, '29; Home Decoration Club, '30.

"Teedee's" ambition is to be an interior decorator. Favors to none, nor smiles she extends.

Charles Graham Towne

95 Swan Street

Hi-Y, '28, '29; Secretary, '30; Broadcast Staff, '30; Year Book Staff, '30.

"Charlie" is a reserved chap, but he's full of resources. A teacher of a C. P. A. is what he's likely to be. We know you'd make good at either, "Charlie".

Madeline Tozzi

86 Lewis Street

Spanish Club, '29.

Madeline possesses a sense of humor, which helps her out of many a tight place. She wants to go back to Hannibal, Missouri, on her honeymoon.

Dewey Vacca

33 Alfred Street

"E" Club, '30; Tech Club, '29; Football, '29; Baseball, '30.

Dewey has suddenly come into the limelight with his athletic ability. We hope that you have success in this life.

Stanley Walus

1 Alfred Court

Radio Club, '30.

"Stan" hopes to become an engineer. Even a "Walus" can become an engineer.

Helen Augusta Waters

145 Nichols Street

If you see a blond, blue-eyed girl studying Holmes and very quiet, you'll know it's Helen. She takes in everything and says nothing. Put it to use in the future.

Theodore Herbert Weeks

79 Paris Street

"Donk's" ambition is to be a structural engineer. All the sharks aren't in the ocean.

Beatrice Weiner

77 Francis Street

What Ho! "Bee" wants to see the world. Oh, where is there an aviator that can give "Bee" a lift so she can travel a la air? Come back and tell us about it, "Bee".

Jack White

34 Lawrence Street

Boys' Glee Club, '30; Senior Class Play, '30: Manager Baseball, '30.

"Jake" is a great organizer. He'll liven up B. U. next year. His ambition is to be the best dancer there (not toe).

Sumner Gage Whittier

88 Chestnut Street

American Legion Essay Winner, '29; Senior Class Treasurer, '30; Senior Class Play, '30; Senior Dance Committee, '30; Prize Speaking Contest, '30; Broadcast Staff, '29; Editor, '30; Lyceum, '29; Treasurer, '30; Debating, '30; Lyceum Play, '30; Hi-Y Secretary, '29; Vice-President, '30; Art Club Secretary, '28; Year Book Editor, '30.

Now that "Osculatin' Oscar" has discovered a cure for erratic women, we hope he'll realize his greatest ambition to become a humorist.

Helen Marie Wiederhold

24 Clay Avenue

Orchestra, '30.

Helen wants a kind old boss, but with her giggles she ought to capture many a kind old and young boss. Don't keep them all to yourself.

Arthur James Wilson, Jr.

50 Baker Road

Band, '27, '28, '29; Assistant Leader, '29, '30; Orchestra, '29, '30; Broadcast Staff, '29, '30; Hi-Y Club, '27, '28, '29, '30; Boys' Glee Club, '28.

"Art's" ambition is to become a journalist. Success is heading your way.

Louise Jean Winsor

17 Freeman Avenue

Lovable little "Weiz" is a big help for a girl her size. She wants to go places and do things. Happiness, "Weiz".

Isaac Wolf

167 Belmont Street

Facts and figures have attracted "Ike". In a few years you'll hear his name being mentioned in regard to accountancy. He'll be a success we expect.

Beatrice Louise Womersley

163 Vernal Street

Spanish Club, '28.

Won't that somebody rescue "Bea", but please don't take her as a stenographer. She is quite an economical girl and would be a great help to some interested chap.

Leslie Richmond Wooster

17 Waverly Street

Glee Club, '27, '28, '29, '30.

"Let" wants to enter a higher institution, who knows he might be admitted to the bar.

Anna Wyman

35 Sammet Street

Year Book, '30; Broadcast Secretary, '30.

Ann is small, but, oh my! Good things come in small packages and here's one time the saying proves to be true.

Audrey Mary Wyman

415 Main Street

"Aud" has flung away the vanities of the world and is going to be a serious, prosperous old maid. Tsk, tsk, just wait until HE comes along.

Ruby Frances York

48 Fremont Avenue

"Ru" is petite; "Ru" is sweet. She is to devote her life to running a bachelors' home. We know you'll never be without patronage, "Ru".

Vincent Zannotti

484 Ferry Street

Tech Club, '30; Orchestra, '30.

"Jimmie" should be nicknamed "Ambition", he reminds us of the rabbit in the fairy tale.

Dorothy C. Barry

40 Thurman Park

It seems that "Dot's" ambition is to see her brother hit a home run, but why not think about yourself. Maybe a course in "good housekeeping".

Stephen Joseph Curley

3 Bernard Avenue

Boys' Glee Club, '30.

"Steve" is the sunshine boy. His ambition is to have a C. P. A. attached to his name. The race is yours, "Steve".

Ralph B. Davis

962 Broadway

Ralph doesn't know just to what he is going to devote his life. If you're a gentleman, it'll be a blonde, Ralph.

Grace Celia Dooley

14 Cleveland Avenue

Lampshade Club, '27; Home Economics Club, '28; Home Nursing Club, '29; Decoration Club, '30.

Just a good all around girl.

Thomas Doyle

Tech Club, '30; Algebra Club, '28; Chemistry Club, '29.

"Tom", some day you'll grow up. Then you can get a man's job.

James Robert Harrington

18 Ferry Street

"E" Club, '30; Basketball, '29, '30.

"Cheese" has one great ambition; to write a French book, no doubt he could write a French book of his own, and it would sell.

Carl Olson

207 Shute Street

Lyceum, '29; Assistant Treasurer Senior Dance Committee, '30; Treasurer of Junior Prom Committee, '29; Football, '29.

Maybe he'd like to learn the carpenter's trade and move from Everett.

Gertrude Osborne

3 Manning Terrace

"Gerty" is still wondering what she'd like to do. It might be anything from keeping a home for stray fleas to a barber shop.

John Redmond

148 Florence Street

Executive Council, '27; Secretary and Treasurer of Sigma Alpha Club, '27, '28; President Tech Club, '30.

"Barney" has the wanderlust. We suggest trying to park.

Jennie M. Brown

564 Boulevard, Revere

Mrs. Brown intends to become a teacher of harmony and pianoforte. She has proven her worth in Everett High School. We know success awaits her.

Albert Henry Crocker

65 Bradford Street

Albert has no ambition but we know that whatever he undertakes will go over with a silent bang.

William James Arthur Geary

7 Shute Street

Tech Club, '30.

As a pilot, "Bill", we suggest you do your piloting on the ground. You're safer.

John William Fitzgerald

34 Thurman Park

Lyceum, '28, '29, '30; Orchestra, '28, '29, '30.

Whatever you attempt, "look before you leap."

Mae Edith De Pietro

91 Chestnut Street

Interior Decorating Club, '30; Junior Prom Committee, '29.

Mae's ambition is to be a nurse. When you're "Over There" watch out for the frogs.

Emma Rose Giannone

24 Woodville Street

"Chickie" will always be remembered for her vivacity. Silks and satins are in store for her. As a New York Mannequin she'll be the envy of the "400".

George Henry Golden

218 Vine Street

"E" Club Secretary, '29; Treasurer, '30; Lyceum, '29; Baseball, '29; Football, '28.

"Doddy" hopes to go to B. C. and star in many football games. He certainly has the stuff.

Eileen Hall

19 Bailey Street

As a stenographer, Eileen, we know you'll prove your worth and be a success, but how about succeeding in getting a diploma?

John Francis McLaughlin

30 Waverly Avenue

Spanish Club, '28, '29, '30; Writers' Club, '30; Hi-Y Club, '29; Lyceum, '28, '29.

His ambition is to be a journalist. "Mack" writes with much ease. Journalism is a fit desire for him.

Donald Hugh McLeod

70 Rockland Avenue

Current Events Club, '30.

Donald is going to be a farmer and wants to be called just "Dawn".

Margaret A. Murphy

42 Swan Street

"Peg's" ambition is to be a stenographer. We know she'll be a success when those "Irish eyes are smiling".

James Hamilton Patterson

104 Waverly Street

"Jimmie" hopes to become a big business man, he is a very bright boy and has plenty of confidence in himself. Success awaits you.

Victor Richard Abbott Taylor

134 Cottage Street

Boys' Glee Club, '27; Orchestra, '28, '29; Band, '28, '29.

"Vic" is going to devote his life to research work in science, another poor soul gone mad.

Phyllis Elaine Walsh

24 Ellsworth Street

Girls' Glee Club, '28, '29, '30; Christmas Entertainment, '27, '29.

Dear little "Phil"; she is good; when she talks, she is better; and when she sings, she is best. May your life be one grand song.

Mollie Weinstein

308 Chelsea Street

Mollie intends to write a newspaper of her own called the "Goody Goody Girls' Review".

THE TREASURE CHEST

A History of the Class of 1930

An old man reverently opened a rusty lock clasping securely a small treasure chest which lay on the table before him. It opened and he gazed expectantly at its contents.

"I'd almost forgotten I had this", he murmured to himself. He placed two or three things on the table, then clutched the year book of the class of 1930 and settled back contentedly in his chair. Slowly his memory traveled back over the intervening years and he was lost in revery.

FRESHMAN YEAR

In the year 1927 our able leader was James Kavanaugh, who headed our student-body. As assistants, James had the presidents of the home rooms to help him in his work.

At various intervals during the year, either the student-government or the home rooms ran dances which were a source of pleasure to us, as freshmen.

One of our most popular extra-curricula activities was the Dramatic Club under the direction of Miss Cahill. Two of the outstanding plays which were presented were "The Knave of Hearts", and "The Enchanted Christmas Tree."

The greatest honor which could be conferred upon any freshman was the winning of the Parlin "P". We are proud to say that Carmel Canderozzi, Walter Casey, Walter Conrad, Lois Crowell, Blanche Dunbar, Frank Foley, Charles Gordon, William Govenor, James Kavanaugh, Eleanor Lowell, Herbert Metten, Margaret McDonough, Henrietta Reich, Dorothy Stickney, Lois Stockard, Phyllis Walsh, and Ruby York attained this honor.

"Well," mused the old man, "how wise we thought we were as freshmen and yet how much we had to learn."

SOPHOMORE YEAR

Once more James Kavanaugh was our director by being chosen to represent us on the School Council.

On the gridiron we had two men who won their "E", Edward Helein and Lester Borden.

We left the task of spreading good cheer to Lester Borden, who likewise did his bit on the Christmas Committee.

In the popular sport of basketball we had Robert Charlton, James Kavanaugh, James Harrington and Reginald Smith.

During the year we contributed as girl songsters: Marjorie Brown, Ada Foglia, and Dorothy Jackson as pianist to the Glee Club.

Members of the Lyceum were Ford Grant, Ralph Spear, James Kavanaugh, David Fitzgerald, Martin McDonough, John Fitzgerald, Walter Casey, George Jones, Joseph Liner and Joseph Caroselli.

On the Broadcast, both on the staff and board, we were represented by James Kavanaugh and Frances Clapp.

We elected James Kavanaugh to make the welcoming speech for Parents' Night.

Two of our girls, Martina Potter and Myrtle Dudley, displayed their dramatic talents when they assumed roles in "Nevertheless," which was presented on Parents' Night.

"My", reflected the old man, "that was an interesting year, but the year to come is still better. Will I ever forget the thrill that came from being an upper classman? How important we thought we were!

JUNIOR YEAR

During this year we had our first executive officers who were:
President, Frank Di Venuti.
Vice-President, Lester Borden.
Secretary, John Del Isola.
Treasurer, Blanche Dunbar.
School Council Representatives, James Kavanaugh and Frances Clapp.

Once again we were proud to number among our "E" men, Edward Helein, Lester Borden, Sydney Mayhew, James Harrington, and John Del Isola. In continuing our sports we were extremely proud to be represented in basketball by John Del Isola, James Harrington and James Kavanaugh. On the tennis team we had Reginald Smith, Lawrence Fulton, Albert Jee, James Kavanaugh, Gordon Clerke and Wilbur McIntosh.

During this year sunshine was spread by Frances Clapp who was on the Good Cheer Committee.

For orators our class was represented by David Osborne, Joseph Liner, Edward Morris, Eugene Snook, Ralph Spear, James Kavanaugh, Walter Casey, Frank Di Venuti and Sumner Whittier.

With true Ciceronian ability Dorothy Jackson and Edward Morris entered the annual prize speaking contest. Edward Morris won the second prize.

Aside from the usual program we had Effie Merrill, Carmel Canderozzi, Shirley Shattuck, Blanche Dunbar, Celia Rudin, James Kavanaugh, Lester Borden and Frank Di Venuti representing us in the "E" club cast.

The editor of our bi-weekly publication was Frank Di Venuti, and on his staff were James Kavanaugh, Sumner Whittier, Gordon Clerke, Marjorie Brown, Shirley Shattuck and Frances Clapp. Frank Di Venuti was also sporting editor of the year book.

For our musical offering we had as members of the Girls' Glee Club, Katherine Hayes, Effie Merrill, Edith Delory, Mildred Paulding, Doris Libby, Marjorie Brown, Frances Clapp, Phyllis Walsh, Blanche Dunbar and Ellen Pratt.

In the band we had Albert Jee, Arthur Wilson, Raymond Driscoll, John Fitzgerald, Harold Peterson, Everett Brandt, John Thims, Angelo Covino and Victor Taylor.

No class year is complete without its brilliant luminaries. We were proud to have as our honor pupils Genevieve O'Brien and Mario Scibinico.

The one outstanding event of the year was the Junior Prom. The committee which made it a success was composed of Frank Di Venuti, Chairman; Lester Borden, Assistant Chairman; John Del Isola, Business Manager; Albert Jee, Assistant Business Manager; Carl Olson, Treasurer; Effie Merrill, Secretary; Blanche Dunbar, Decoration Chairman, and Shirley Shattuck, Edith Delory, Edward Helein, James Kavanaugh, Jean Ross, Sydney Mayhew, Edward Morris, Teresa Auger, May Di Pietro, Alton Fuller, Joseph Hogan, Marjorie Brown, Dorothy Sheehan, Lloyd Hathaway, Thomas Nolan, Doris Libby and Charles Marks.

"Oh," sighed the old man, "if youth but knew what age could do. Never in my life has there been anything like my senior year in high school. If I could but live it over! That is impossible, but I can at least live it in memory," as he turned the page to the glowing account of the senior class of 1930.

SENIOR YEAR

Knowing that this was to be our last year in Everett High School, we chose with care the following officers:

President, John Del Isola
Vice-President, Albert Jee.
Secretary, Blanche Dunbar.
Treasurer, Sumner Whittier.
Assistant Treasurer, John O'Brien.

We honored Albert Jee and Sumner Whittier by electing them to the school council, Sumner, due to too many other activities, was later replaced by Frank Di Venuti.

To care for our traffic problem, we chose the ever capable James Kavanaugh as captain. His able lieutenants were: Edward Morris, Herbert Metten, Mario Scibinico, Louis Chamberlain, Jack Best and Ervin Nichols.

Frances Clapp was once again elected to head the Good Cheer Committee, and was assisted by Arthur Fournier.

The editors of our bi-weekly paper were Sumner Whittier and Frank Di Venuti.

On the Broadcast staff were John MacLaughlin, Frances Clapp, Celia Rudin, Arthur Wilson, Anna Judge, Charles Towne, David Ginsburg, Joseph Liner, Ruth Baglow, Olive Ricker and Edna Burnett.

Celia Rudin and Sumner Whittier, entered the Prize Speaking Contest. Celia Rudin won the prize which was open to both boys and girls.

Many of our number, headed by Marjorie Brown as manager, were among the ranks of the Girls' Glee Club. They were: Theresa Auger, Phyllis Walsh, Mildred Paulding, Katherine Hayes, Edith Delory, Blanche Dunbar, Dorothy Sheehan, Doris Libby, Doris Proud, Charlotte Lowell, Eleanor Lowell, Ethel Harper, Effie Merrill, Rosella Monroe, and Frances Clapp. In the Club's annual musical show the following male characters were chosen to assume roles: Arthur Fournier, Frank Foley, Joseph Hogan, and Frank Di Venuti.

Our "E" men on the gridiron for our last year were: John Del Isola, Joseph Doherty, Joseph MacEachern, Dewey Vacca, Arthur Fournier, Raymond Duncan, John O'Brien, Fred Taylor, Michael Masiello, Walter Sampson, Arthur Borjeson, William Johnson and Paul Mackey.

To make our year book a success we chose Sumner Whittier as editor-in-chief, Frank Di Venuti as associate editor, Edward Morris as business manager, and Wilbur MacIntosh as assistant business manager.

Our school music was well rendered by the band which included John Fitzgerald, Angelo Covino, Arthur Wilson and Albert Jee.

The senior members of the orchestra were: Angelo Covino, John Fitzgerald, Arthur Wilson, Harry Bernstein and Albert Jee.

In basketball we were proud of John Del Isola, James Kavanaugh, James Harrington, Walter Conrad, Reginald Smith.

Our annual play was "Turn to the Right" under the direction of the Misses Brown and Marshall. Our cast was comprised of Florence Cook, Edna Burnett, Blanche Dunbar, Doris Proud, Frances Clapp, Sumner Whittier, Jack White, John Snook, Walter Casey, William Gunderson, Frank Di Venuti, and Chester Bond. The production committee included: Edward Morris, Wilbur MacIntosh, Lloyd Hathaway, and William Cadogan.

One of our most important events was the Senior Dance under the able direction of Frank Di Venuti as chairman and the following committee: John Del Isola, assistant chairman; Edward Morris, business manager; Albert Jee, assistant business manager; Effie Merrill, secretary; Sumner Whittier, treasurer; and Blanche Dunbar, decoration.

It was during this year that our sub-master, Michael O'Neill left our school to become mayor of the city.

In glancing back over our senior year we feel that it has been most successful.

The old man laid the book down for a moment. "I wonder what happened to that class that I wrote about in that verse which was made with apologies to Will Hayes? Here it is:

"Here is a toast that we want to give
To the class we'll never know.
To the class that's going to take our place
When it's time for us to go.
I wonder what kind of class it will be?
And we've wished that we could be on hand
Just to whisper, 'We wish you well old class,'
In a way they'd understand."

The old man let the book slip through his fingers and he gazed into the slowly dying embers of the fire.

YE JUNIORS

CENSUS TAKING AMONG US JUNIORS

The census taking in the town of Juniors proved to be a very colorful and eventful experience.

The leading citizens seemed to be Mr. Lawrence Davis, Mr. William Brickley, Miss Carla Paaske, Mr. Floyd Butler, and Mr. Scott Manuel, because the above mentioned held the executive positions of president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, and representative to the city council respectively.

In December the town joined with its neighboring town, Freshmen, to raise money for a most worthy cause—the Christmas baskets. Mr. Floyd Butler served on the general Christmas Committee composed of members from three other towns. Miss Averill Carpenter was quite active as a "Good Cheer" worker during the entire year.

The leading football athletes were Messrs. Butler, Coholan, Coviello, Davis, Goldstein, Jackson, Manuel, McLean, and Richmond. Among these the successful little town was proud to boast of the future football captain, Syd Goldstein. Messrs. Foberg, Rogean, Rogers, and Merriam were awarded letters for their basketball playing, while Messrs. Connolly, Horsman, Pamarella, Rogers, Shea, and Yavarow have shown themseves to be baseball players. Among the opposite sex Misses Masters, Ricci, Snoen, Tierney, and Manion have made names for themselves in the field of sports.

A family in house 208 won fame for itself by winning the Broadcast award as entertainers. The Merrites who formed this clever group were Thomas (Sullivan), Boyce (Spooner), Richard (McLay), Samuel (Blanch), Ellis (Cornish), and Carla (Paaske). Never was this town reported as lacking in talent because it had such gifted citizens as Miss Blanche De Genova, with her golden voice, and Mr. Isadore Huberman and Mr. Benjamin Swartz, two truly enjoyable female impersonators. The town artist was Miss Annie Semenuk.

Its literary talent seemed to lie in Miss Carla Paaske, an associate editor of the local paper, and Miss Lena Levosky, Mr. Marshall Kearney, and Mr. Herbert Smith of the general staff. Miss Paaske and Mr. Francis Bellevue held positions on the directors' board of the paper.

Speaking ability belonged to Miss Lena Levosky and Mr. Lawrence Davis, both winners of oratory prizes.

One outstanding undertaking of the town was "The Junior Promenade." It was successfully run by the following executive committee, Mr. Lawrence Davis, Mr. Scott Manuel, Mr. James Gross, Miss Eleanor Constantine and Miss Carla Paaske. The above committee was assisted by the following: Misses Gowen, Carpenter, Tarr, De Genova, Lanciani and Messrs. Harrington, Goldstein, Grieves, Brickley, Butler, Donnelly, Marchant, Fitz Gerald, and Doran.

One name which was not put on record was that of Mr. Thomas McCarte who has passed on to the Silent Land.

Many other known citizens have been busy at work in the local Speakers' club, the Lyceum, the local Band and Orchestra, and the very famous Girls' Glee Club.

One imposing feature about this town is its thriving business of making citizens for the Future. The majority of its inhabitants feel that when they,

"Build today, then, strong and sure,
With a firm and ample base;
And ascending and secure
Shall tomorrow find its place."

Honor to those whose words
Have helped us in our daily tasks.

CARLA PAASKE.

YE SOPHOMORES

SOPHOMORES

We, the cast of the play entitled "Sophisticated Sophomores," have had as our theatre the Senior High School. This play took place from September, 1929 to June, 1930.

The leading man was played by Carl Linden, who represented us in the School Council.

The Outstanding Characters were Leonard Martenson, Rose Baritz, Nathan Ostrofsky, Eileen Rosen, and Gerhard Flodberg, who attained high scholastic standing in their studies.

The outstanding boy athletes in our play were Gagliardi and Stein, who made their "E" in football.

John Toomey, Mildred McCune, Albert Doloff, Joseph Cannell of the cast were the representatives to the "Broadcast."

The role of Santa Claus on the Christmas Committee was played by Buddy Callahan.

Elsie Stockard, Frances Kendall, Jeanie Young, Margaret Young, Margaret Maddeaux were the outstanding girl athletes.

The leading lady in our play was Ann Welling, who took a part in the Girls' Glee Club Show.

Besides athletes and a Santa Claus we had many artists. The outstanding ones were Regina Burserean, Evelyn Robinson, Leslie Oberland, William Foberg, Michael Saitta and Mary Sargeant.

Death took from us Roland Thorne who was known by all.

For lack of space we regret that in closing our play we cannot give the names of those who took part in the Band, Orchestra, Lyceum, Boys' and Girl's Glee Club, and other prominent clubs.

We owe many thanks to our teachers who made our play a wonderful success.

The curtain now falls but will be drawn again in the fall. This time our play will be entitled "The Jolly Juniors."

FRESHMEN

FRESHMAN CLASS

In September, 1929, 230 Mechanic Arts Boys and Domestic Science Girls entered the Freshman Class in the Senior High School with the firm determination to study conscientiously so as to prepare themselves to be worthy citizens of the city, state, and nation, and acquire for themselves an education that would be an asset through life.

Thomas Jackson was selected as a member of the Christmas Committee, and Albert Dolloff as a member of the Broadcast Staff.

During the fall of 1929, the freshmen of the Senior High School organized a football team which played a team composed of freshmen of the Junior High School and defeated them decisively three times.

The team was as follows:

Full Back	Edward Mattuchio
Left Half Back	Jerry Del Isola
Right Half Back	Clarence Bishop
Quarter Back	Albert Dolloff
Left End	Donald Leonard
Right End	William Powell
Left Tackle	Joseph Boniface
Right Tackle	Tony Ricci
Left Guard	George Digby
Right Guard	Chester Savage
Center	Thomas Jackson

Room 323 was the winner of the Freshman Basketball Tournament. Their team consisted of:

James Rush
Jerry Del Isola
George Digby
John Marrena
Joseph Morse

Lena Wineberg was a member of the Girls' Basketball Team. Freshman members of the Band were:

Kenneth Grant
Paul Thims
Melvin Blake
William Gorman

ALBERT DOLLOFF.

SCHOOL COUNCIL

The Council has been unusually active this year and we owe its success to the co-operation of both teachers and students.

Although we have had some offenders this year, because of the Everett High School Spirit, the cases have ended in good feeling between both the student and the council.

The Council bought a Fada radio—really the gift of the combined councils of 1929 and 1930—and we sincerely hope that in the future it will prove both entertaining and educational to the students of Everett High School.

The Annual Meeting of the Associated Body of Massachusetts School Councils was held April 19, 1930 at Beverly High School. Three delegates were sent from our council. Mr. Rockwood sent a letter to the convention inviting the Council to hold its annual meeting in Everett in 1931 and we were very proud and happy to have the offer accepted.

The members of the Executive Council are:

Frank DiVenuti, Chairman

THE LIEUTENANTS

The Lieutenants' Corps of 1929-30 brings its work to a close with the satisfaction that the niche it has occupied in school life has been filled to the best of its ability. The new year has brought new problems and the corps has done its utmost to solve them, endeavoring to create a willingness among the rest of the students to observe order. At midyear the Traffic Squad was greatly reduced, yet the filing has been brought to a high point of efficiency, largely the result of co-operation on the part of the filing students and the interest taken by the teachers.

It is impossible to speak of the Corps' work without mentioning the labors of Mr. Chase on its behalf. His enthusiasm and patience have made these accomplishments possible.

The personnel:

Mr. Leon Chase	Faculty Advisor
James Kavanaugh	Captain
Edward Morris	Lieutenant Third Floor
Louis Chamberlain	Lieutenant Second Floor
Herbert Metten	Lieutenant First Floor
Erwin Nichols	Lieutenant Basement
Mario Scibinico	Lieutenant Basement and Outside

GOOD CHEER COMMITTEE

We hope our Good Cheer Committee has lived up to its name, for that is just what we have tried to be—a group capable of bringing a bit of "Good Cheer" to those who have been shut in.

This committee, directed by Miss Desmond, faculty advisor, is composed of Arthur Fournier, Frances Clapp, and Averill Carpenter.

As soon as we learn of anyone being on the sick-list, we send messages of cheer—cards, letters, magazines, fruit, or flowers.

The money is raised by voluntary contributions, thus every one may have a part. We feel sure that for those who have helped carry on the work, there has been ample compensation in knowing that:

Some one played a friendly role,
Some one cheered a tired soul
And sent it swinging toward its goal.
Student—was it you?

EVERETT HIGH SCHOOL ORCHESTRA

This year the members of the orchestra were saddened by the death of Mr. Crowley, its supervisor, whose untiring efforts taught the members to accomplish great tasks in a very short space of time. We, in the orchestra, lost in Mr. Crowley's death a friend and advisor.

Mr. Ottavio De Vivo was elected to direct the orchestra. Mr. De Vivo had a hard task to fill the vacancy left by Mr. Crowley's death, but with his efficient leading and understanding of music, the orchestra is fast becoming a very fine orchestra.

The purpose of the orchestra is essentially to teach the players to appreciate the best type of music and to play it as it should be played.

We wish Mr. De Vivo future success with the orchestra.

THE GIRLS' GLEE CLUB SHOW

Did you see our annual presentation this year? If you didn't you missed a great time. The name of the play was "Purple Towers." It was a story of a haunted castle occupied by two prize fighters (the ghosts). Mary Vanderlip returns from Paris to find that her home is leased to two people. She is taken for the cook and a thief falls in love with an author who is one of the people who rented the house.

It was a very puzzling mystery to solve and the intrigued audience seemed intensely interested. However, as in all good productions, it ended happily and the hero and heroine lived "happily ever after." The leading roles were enacted by Catherine Hayes and Arthur Fournier. Other members of the cast were Doris Libby, Marjorie Brown, Phyllis Walsh, Edith Delory, Lucille Tarr, Joseph Hogan, Frank Di Venuti, Frank Foley, and Alice Perella.

THE DEBATING TEAM

In the initial debate of the season, the team, composed of Roger MacDonald, first speaker; Sumner Whittier, second speaker; and Edward Morris, third speaker; and Lawrence Davis, alternate; met Saugus High School on the latter's platform and carried away the honors. The question under discussion was "Resolved: that the Philippine Islands should be granted their immediate independence."

The second debate was the Second Annual Prize Debate sponsored by the Boston College Club of Everett and the Lyceum. The speakers on the affirmative were: first, Sumner Whittier; second, Edward Morris; and third, Roger MacDonald. On the negative the order was as follows: James Kavanaugh, Theodore Hewitt, and Lawrence Davis. A bronze medal was given to the best speaker by the Boston College Club and charms were awarded to the winning team. The question was "Resolved: that the City of Boston should be extended to include those cities and towns known as Metropolitan Boston."

Several other debates were considered during the season, but because of other activities the Lyceum was forced to refuse the challenges received.

THE CHRISTMAS COMMITTEE

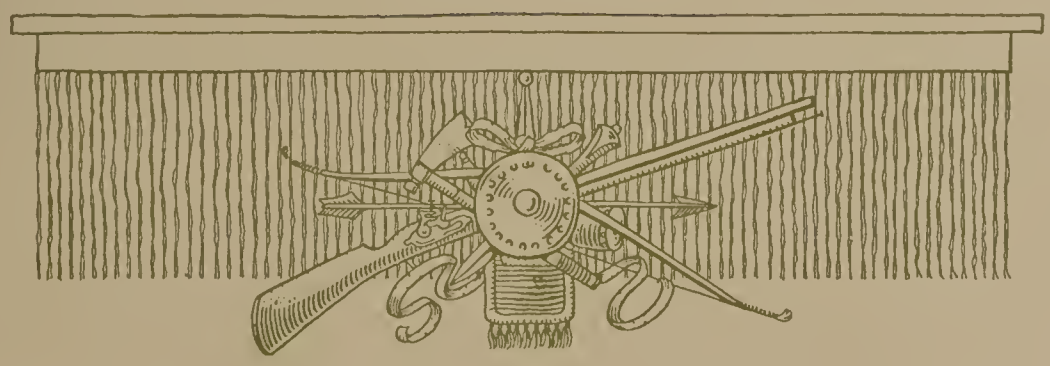
The Christmas Committee for 1929 was:

Mr. Arthur Boudreau	Chairman
John Del Isola	Senior Representative
Floyd Butler	Junior Representative
William Callahan	Sophomore Representative
Charles Jackson	Freshman Representative
Mildred Kingston	Secretary
Frank Di Venuti	Secretary

The committee filled a great many baskets this year. The fine work of the student body in responding to the requests of the Committee added to the success of their work. The co-operation of all of the men teachers also helped a great deal. If the committee has made any one family happy then their work was not in vain.

We hope that the future committees will receive as much pleasure out of doing this work as did the committee of 1929.

CLUBS



THE LYCEUM

The Lyceum holds the distinction of being the oldest organization in the school. It was founded 37 years ago by our principal, Mr. Rockwood. Since that time it has had a successful career. Amongst its speakers have been Mayor Michael C. O'Neill, Edward Bryant, and Dwight Davis. Many prominent men look back upon the time when they were members of the Lyceum.

Everett decisively whipped Saugus on the Philippine question. The Boston College-Lyceum Prize Debate was a marked success. The Lyceum play, "Man or Mouse" climaxed the season.

The purpose of the organization is to promote interest in public speaking and debating, foster school pride in forensic ability and promote fellowship. In the Wednesday meetings several prominent speakers addressed the group and many interesting discussions were held.

THE GIRL'S GLEE CLUB

The Girls' Glee Club feels honored to think they have had the opportunity to be a success in the Tercentenary year of 1930. There will be no other Glee Club in our day to have this unusual privilege.

In upholding our belief that we have been successful, it is fitting to say that at the Baptist, Congregational and Universalist churches, our entertainment has seemed to gratify our audiences. To be a little humorous, one might say that the Glee Club has entered politics as the group sang for the Woman's Republican Club. The Penmanship Association witnessed one or two specialty numbers from our annual musical comedy. In showing our school spirit we supported the Christmas committee by offering a few numbers. In assemblies too, we have contributed our bit.

Now as you know how far we have advanced in our program, don't you wish to join us in wishing the future Glee Clubs of E. H. S. as great, if not greater success?

THE BOYS' GLEE CLUB

As one more year is being written into history, that organization known as the Boys' Glee Club may be noted as having striven to continue the splendid work of previous years. The difficulties which confronted this year's group were many and, in view of this fact, the year may well be considered a successful one.

Since a re-organization in January rapid strides have been made, the re-organized club making its debut at the Prize Speaking Contest, February twenty-sixth. Plans are being made to participate in the Tercentenary celebration in May.

The membership of the club is as follows:

First Tenor

LAWRENCE BLEILER STEPHEN CURLEY RICHARD SCULLY HANNUM SHULTZ

First Bass

CHESTER BOND MICHAEL HORENSTEIN ROCCO PINI STANLEY SKOMERSKI

THE GIRLS' ENGLISH CLUB

Although a fifteen-year old child should "be seen and not heard," the Girls' English Club, which is just that age, is both seen and heard.

Among our activities, we have enjoyed Shakespearean dramas, ushered at one of Dr. Barker's lectures, and given an April Fool Party. Now, as our final and crowning event, we are planning the annual English club tea which is given by the out-going members to those girls of the Junior class who are eligible for the following year. This great event will take place in the fair month of May.

Our officers for the year are:

President	Ruth Baglow
Vice-President	Evelyne Oliver
Secretary	Lois Stockard
Treasurer	Dorothy Gesner

Our associations this year have been very enjoyable and we can certainly look back on the year of 1930 as one of pleasant memories.

Now, although unusual for a group of girls, we really have nothing more to say and the Girls' English Club of 1930 bids you good-bye.

Watch for 1931.

SPANISH CLUB

The Spanish Club, under the efficient direction of Mrs. Brewer and Miss Stavrinos, have broken all records this year.

At the beginning of the year the following officers were elected:

President ..... Alphonse Mandrachia
Vice-President ..... Blanche DeGenoa
Secretary ..... Shirley Shattuck
Club reporter ..... Lillian V. Brown

The annual entertainment proved to be a most successful affair. The committee in charge consisted of Blanche DeGenoa, Lillian Brown, and Arthur Petrie.

Mrs. Brewer received many compliments for her splendid work on the "Patio."

Each week an interesting program is provided. The biggest project upon which we are now working is a Mexican village which is being constructed by the club members.

We sincerely hope that all Spanish students will avail themselves of the privilege of becoming members of our Spanish Club in the future. To our senior members who are leaving we wish the fullest measures of true success and happiness, to the underclassmen we extend a hearty invitation, and wish you the pleasure and success that we have enjoyed as members of the Spanish Club.

Mr. MacAlpine and Mr. Snow have guided the club successfully throughout the school year.

We have had as speakers during the past meetings, Messrs. Thayer, Byrant, Putman, Seaverns, Wendelstein, and Boudreau of the faculty.

We do not only look to the members of the faculty for our talks, but to students as well. J. Warren Kelley gave a fine talk on "The Value of Education," and Thomas Savage on "Men and Machines."

THE WRITERS' CLUB

The Writers' Club was organized in the fall of 1929 by Mrs. Christine Lawlor. The purpose of the club is to foster more interest in writing among the students. In order that more work could be accomplished, a limited number was allowed in the organization. Throughout the year the members entered many contests and several received commendation for their work. A book containing the works of the club, made by the members, has been placed in the library in order that an interest in this line of work may be started.

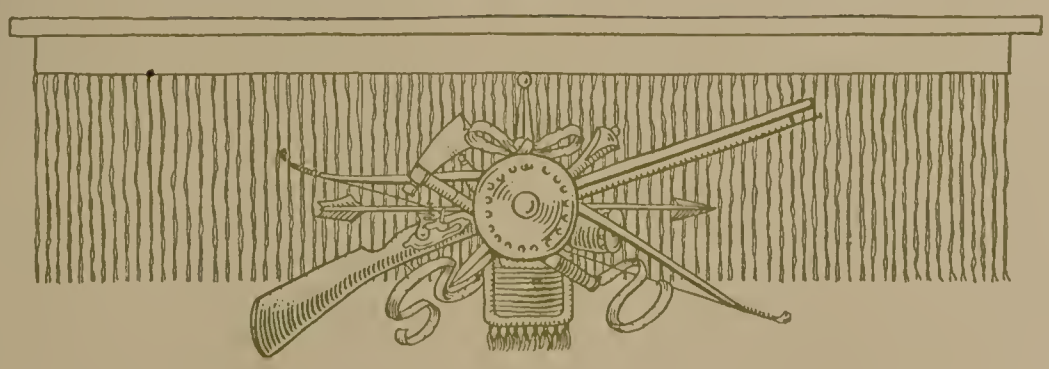
ATHLETICS



Athletics in the high schools of our state have undergone many changes the past few years, but no change is comparable to the most recent ruling of the Headmaster's Association, whereby a student is eligible for competition for three years only. This throws the competition for the various teams wide open to a much larger and younger group of boys. You might say, every fellow has a chance now!

No longer shall the various teams be predominated by seniors or fifth year boys. It was quite noticeable this past year, the large number of sophomores and juniors that made their letters.

It may be true that the caliber of play is slightly inferior to the old regime, but nevertheless the spirit aroused through the large number of boys reporting for the team, more than compensates.

Athletics are worth while—they unquestionably develop the body, they tend to sharpen the brain to co-ordinate with the body, and they teach the conscientious boy a fine code of morals.

It should be the ambition of every boy at Everett High to be a member of some squad, and I heartily recommend and invite all the boys to report for some team during the coming year.

DENNIS GILDEA

A strong heart and a keen mind, bound together with determination and housed within a sturdy, well developed body are among the greatest assets that a young person can have as he goes out from school to face the problems of life.

Physical education is attempting to do its share toward providing these assets by mass athletic games, which quicken the mind and build up and strengthen the body and also develop co-ordination and quick thinking by means of calesthenics and varied types of apparatus work.

Only with the co-operation of every pupil can we expect to accomplish our ideal of athletics for everybody and everybody for athletics.

THE FOOTBALL TEAM

The Everett High School team enjoyed a fairly successful season this year. They lost several hard fought battles, where it was a toss-up to the last whistle. They had a hard fighting team, or to put it briefly, "They may have lost, but they always went down fighting!"

The letter men this year are:

Capt. John Del Isola
Arthur Greene
Joseph Doherty
Floyd Butler
Joseph MacEachern
Scott Manuel
Dewey Vacca
David Gagliargi
Arthur Fournier
Raymond Duncan
John O'Brien
Fred Taylor
Carl Stein
Harry Coholan
Jack McLean
Arthur Coviello
Nelson Ells
Michael Masiello
Walter Sampson
Capt. Elect Sydney Goldstein
Arthur Borjeson
William Jackson
Lawrence Davis
Milton Richmond
Paul Mackey

Several other boys made their letter but did not receive it because of ineligibility.

Captain John Del Isola was the outstanding star, receiving All-Scholastic Awards from the Post, Traveler, Herald, Advertiser, and the American.

EVERETT HIGH SCHOOL BASKETBALL TEAM
SUBURBAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONS 1930

The basketball season of 1930 marks a fine step in the program of E. H. S. athletics. At the first call for candidates, 65 new, but hopeful aspirants tried out for the team, but finally the squad was weeded down to 22 men. The first squad was led by Co-captains John Del Isola and Ralph Merriman and comprised of Kavanaugh, Smith, Conrad, Harrington, Di Venuti, Foberg, Rogers, Rogean, and Fuglestad.

The second squad led by Capt. Mickey O'Brien was composed of J. O'Brien, Lillis, Dougherty, Taylor, Polansky, Kudryk, Manuel, Wiley, Yavarow, and Pelosi.

The high scorers for the season were Kavanaugh and Smith with a total of 107 points apiece.

The remarkable success of this year's team is a great boost for Coach Lennox B. Putnam.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

In the fall of 1929, forty girls answered the call for the Girls' Basketball Team. Every girl was given an equal chance to play. The sport was more for the enjoyment derived from playing, and to learn the fundamentals of basket-ball, than for the sake of making a regular team.

A varsity and various class teams were organized. The varsity team was captained by Florence Kelly, managed by Gertrude Snoen, and coached by Miss Green. The Sophomore team had Elsie Stockard as captain and Jeanie Young as manager, while the Junior team had Dorothy Marsters as captain and Carmela Ricci as manager.

Clean, swift games were played with Somerville, Chelsea, Malden, Hingham, Cambridge, and the Everett Junior High.

Coveted "E's" were won by Florence Kelly, Gertrude Snoen, Lois Crowell, Lois Stockard, Ellen Digby, Frances Kendall, Elsie Stockard, Isabel Gardner and Margaret Young.

TRACK TEAM

The Indoor Track Season started in January, with Dennis Gildea as coach, Ralph Colson, assistant coach, and Joe Sorrenti, captain.

The team participated in all the school-boy meets and made a very good showing considering that this is the first year they have run on a board track.

The Relay Team, consisting of John Carroll, John Rizzo, Joseph Sorrenti and Donald McKee, defeated the David Prouty team at the Andover school-boy meet.

Two Indoor dual meets were held with Revere and Somerville.

The team consists of Joseph Sorrenti, captain; John Rizzo, Lawrence Bleiler, William Jackson, Arthur Coviello, John Carroll, Donald McKee, Joseph Pais, Charles Bourque, Ernest Hosty, Alfred Fredericks, Stanley Hood, Stephen Curley, and John Snooks. Seven men made letters during the indoor season.

Donald McKee, William Page, John Carroll, Raymond Duncan, Joseph Sorrenti, and Joseph Pais participated at the Pennsylvania Relay Carnival in Philadelphia, April 25 and 26.

BASEBALL

Coach Dennis Gildea started the 1930 Baseball with four veterans—Capt. Del Isola, O'Brien, Yavarow, and Morris. With this nucleus the coach moulded a fighting team of underclassmen. The schedule is as follows, with the scores of the games that had been played previous to the time the Year Book went to press:

TENNIS

Under the careful guidance and leadership of Mr. C. J. Thayer, as coach, and James Kavanaugh as captain and manager, the 1930 Tennis Team had a most successful year. The boys realized that the schedule of games was the hardest in many years, so they went into each match with a great deal of fight. The result was surprising for many victories were accredited to the Everett team. Games were played with Somerville, Newton, Worcester Commerce, Cambridge, Brookline, Quincy, and many other notable teams in the state.

INTER-ROOM CHAMPS. 1929-30

The 1929-30 inter-room basketball league championship, formed by Mr. Putnam, was won by Room 207.

The team consisted of "Art" Fournier, left guard; "Harry" Bernstein, left forward; "Jim" Kavanaugh, center; "Al" Mandrachia, right guard; and "Phil" Stone, right forward. Other members of the team are "Noah" Goldberg, "Wee Willie" Wilson, "Joe" Kelley and "Walt" Casey.

The team was led by Captain "Jim" Kavanaugh, coached by "Reggie" Smith, and managed by "Al" Mandrachia.

JAMES KAVANAUGH.

MEMORIES

Three hundred years ago a sturdy Puritan band, justly determined to gain its freedom, planted the seed of a great Boston. These people came with a vision that formed a foundation stone for our nation.

Now there stands at Life's threshold another band, treasuring, with memories of delightful, inspiring days spent within the portals of Everett High School, the memory of the tales of those pioneers—memories challenging them to carry on that vision which has been transmitted to them. And "It Shall Be Done."

In the distant future, when perhaps the day's occupation has ceased, may they again take this volume, and as they turn the leaves, seeing in the men and women of to-morrow the youthful friends they once knew, may there be called forth sacred memories of achievement, of lives dedicated to a world better because they have lived in it, and a realization that American idealism has not perished. For a people with a vision cannot perish.

HERBERT METTEN, '30.

AUTOGRAPHS

To the memory of our High School years
We've inscribed this book today.
We look ahead with courage brave
To whatever Fate may say.
In future years we'll make new friends,
And find new work to do,
But among them all, we'll ne'er forget
Our memories of you.

These memories like precious stones
Will gleam for us afar,
And light our pathway with their beams
Where light and laughter are.
As years roll on, we'll do our work
With courage tried and true,
And 'till the end, please God, we'll have
Our memories of you.
